IDRA GLOBAL CONNECTIONS

IDRA Global Connections is published by the International Desalination and Reuse Association four times a year in April, July, October and January. Available in digital format on the IDRA website, with printed copies of special editions, it is distributed by email to over approximately 10,000 stakeholders from all sectors of the global desalination, water reuse and advanced water treatment industry.

IDRA Global Connections is a source of news and information not only about IDRA and its affiliates, but also about topics of interest to the global desalination and water reuse industry. We are pleased to offer various sponsorship options to promote your company and showcase your products and services. Your sponsorship support will help IDRA to advocate the use of desalination, water reuse and advanced water treatment solutions to meet the ongoing global need for sustainable clean water.
